

Welcome to TBTA!

We are so excited for you to be part of our Tennessee GBTA chapter that will open professional doors and provide numerous opportunities for networking, personal and professional growth within the industry.

Mission Statement

TBTA is a well-respected organization that strives to increase awareness among business travel professionals through networking, education and community involvement.

History

TBTA was founded as a chapter of the Global Business Travel Association in 1994 by a group of local travel professionals. The objective of TBTA is to develop a network where travel professionals can receive support and education to enhance their career responsibilities through active involvement. TBTA is committed to addressing issues that arise in the travel industry and affect corporate travel.
